ST. LOUIS STAMP & COIN CO.,

115 North Eleventh Street, ST. LOUIS, MO.

VISIT ST. LOUIS IN 1904.

PLEASE be liberal on the items you require, as everything offered is desirable. We invite your attention to the rarities offered in the sale, among which we can enumerate the 1792 Birch Cent, $5 Oregon Exchange Co. Gold Piece, $20 W. M. & Co. Gold Piece, two $50 Octagonal Slugs, 1849 Mormon $5 and and Curious Coins, Swedish Plate Money, and the Extremely 25c. Fractional Currency Bills.

You simply state the most you are willing to give, and there is no "running it up on you" because you are a known specialist along certain lines. You only need to state just what you feel like giving for any item that interests you, and if no one bids more than you, you get it. We trust every auction buyer will send in at least a few bids in order to keep their names alive on our mailing lists, as we are revising the same closely.

TERMS OF SALE.

Our terms are for prompt cash. Remittances must be made within ten days after goods are received, and sooner, if possible. References or deposits required, if unknown to us. If anything sent you is not satisfactory, it may be returned without hesitation, as we do not want you to pay for anything that does not suit. Every item offered is guaranteed to be genuine and as represented. Send us your bids on these terms, and they will be executed to the best of our ability. All of our former sales have been very successful, and the number of bidders is steadily increasing. Join the ranks.
